

ASK PROHIBITION OF LIQUOR IN BULK

Fairmont Churches Send a Resolution To Fayette County Judge.

A resolution representing a church going public of approximately 5,500 people was today wired to the license court setting at Uniontown, Pa., praying that the court should it grant license to the city of Ft. Marion, Pa., refuse the licensees the privilege of selling to Fairmont citizens liquor in bulk.

Sunday in the local churches the following resolution was read to the congregations and unanimously adopted, the various congregations representing fully 5,500 citizens:

Hon. J. Q. Swearingen,
Judge of License Court of Fayette county, Pa.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted by the churches of Fairmont, W. Va., representing a membership of approximately five thousand five hundred:

"Resolved, That the Hon. Judge Van Swearingen of the License Court of Fayette county, Pa., is hereby respectfully requested that if license is granted at Ft. Marion to refuse the right to sell intoxicating liquors in bulk. We ask this for the protection of the citizenship of West Virginia contiguous to Fayette county.

"Rev. Broomfield Canter and Workman, Committee."

At the request of the Ministerial Association, the mayor and city officials were requested to send a telegram to Judge Van Swearingen endorsing the movement and at a meeting this morning the matter was considered and the telegram was forthwith sent to Judge Van Swearingen.

The committee in charge of the resolution, composed of Rev. J. C. Broomfield, Rev. W. I. Canter and

Rev. J. B. Workman, this morning wired the resolution to Judge Van Swearingen at Uniontown.

Some time ago this paper published a story concerning this matter and at that time it was thought a delegation would go from this city and Morgantown to urge that court to take the above mentioned action. After considerable discussion it was thought best to abandon this idea and to take the action that was taken in the churches yesterday.

The churches of Morgantown yesterday took similar action and forwarded a similar resolution to Uniontown.

ROVING BULGARS INVADE GREECE

Exciting Developments Are Expected Soon Among Balkan Nations.

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, April 5.—The roving band of Bulgars, driven out of Serbia after its sudden raid, has penetrated Greece at three points, according to Salonica dispatches. The English press sees in this episode a possibility of developments which may mean a flareup in the Balkan situation. Advances reaching London by way of Rome, assert that Bulgaria has agreed to give full satisfaction to Serbia. If this is true, probably the only sequel to the episode will be to draw from Bulgaria a definite statement as to the policy she proposes to pursue.

All the Balkan nations as well as Italy are awaiting the outcome with interest.

Meanwhile Greece is massing troops along the Bulgarian frontier and Bulgarian reservists and according to advices from Salonica they have received orders to join the colors.

In the countries allied against Germany, Austria and Turkey, the recent developments are blamed upon German intrigue.

The Carpathian front is the quarter in which a decision of first importance is expected soon. London seems to be confident that Russia will break through to Hungary, but this has been predicted many times before.

LITTLE BOBBIE'S PA.

(By William F. Kirk.)

Pa came home last nite and sed I have been invited to talk you all to a musickel. We went, but wen we came home Ma told Pa that he had been halved very bad.

Pa didn't think that Pa beehalved very bad—Pa didn't think so but Ma did & what Ma thinks go.

Wen we first went up to the house where the party was Pa was looking fine. He had on a new suit & a new shirt & he was very quiet all the time he wasen talking. Then some of the people began to sing & then Pa went to work and wanted to sing too.

One of the gentlemen which was there wanted to sing a solo. Fine work, sed Pa, but why not let us make it a duet. We will sing it together. The other gentleman which was a very fine singer told Pa that he wud rather sing it alone. Well, sed Pa, I will tell you what I will do. I will match you to see wether you sing it or I sing it. By no means, sed the singer.

What's the matter, sed Pa, haven't you got a coin to match with. If you haven't I will lend you one. Then Ma took a seat near Pa and stepped on his foot hard & the singer sang the song, Operate giddiothaip-inooowdaochh. Everybody clapped but Pa, & then a grate violinist got up & sed he wud play a obligatto. Grate, sed Pa, I luv to hear a fiddle. I guess I never toald you folks I made a fiddle last week. If you will wait I will go home and get my fiddle & show it to you. Then Ma stepped on Pa's foot sum moar and Pa shut up.

After the fiddle had played his tune Pa began to talk agenn. Now folks, he sed, if you will only listen to me, & my old pal Tommy Burke will sing he was a cowboy. Give us the key, Bo, sed Pa, to the pianist. I do understand, monner, sed the pianist, I sed slip up the key, cul, the getaway note, Pa sed.

Then Ma stepped sum moar on Pa's foot, and a lady which was in the crowd got up and sung. If I was a brook & I was a Deer, I wud drink you, & drink you & drink you. After the singer had sung her song everybody clapped but Pa. I doant like them songs about drinking, sed Pa. They are comon. You might as well sing Pa sed.

If I was a brandy & was myself,

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—Mrs. Charlemagne Tower, Jr., who as Georgianna (Dixie) Burdick, married the son of the former ambassador to Germany, when he was a student at Yale, has filed suit for a divorce. The Towers long denied their son had married the actress, and she later sued the former ambassador for alienation of her husband's affections.

& happened to be standing near you.

I wud reach out my hand where you sat on the shelf

& speer you & speer you & speer you & speer you.

Then Pa & Mr. Burke laffed but nobody else laffed. The way Ma looked at Pa was terribul, but Pa kept rite on talking.

What is musick after all Pa sed, compared to a good long ride across the Arizona plains. Me & my old pal Tommy Burke has ridden over the same groun d menny a time. We have sweep the desserts like arabs. Tell them about the time you ran away from the Yaquis, Tommy. Then sum of the ladies got up to go. They sed it was getting late. No, sed Pa, stick around gurls, the big show is about to commence. Me & my friend, Tommy is going to sing I found a horseshoe. It was on a horses foot. The joke of this song, Pa sed, is that the horse kicked me in the face. Then everybody went hoam.

Just a Hint.

"Now, men," said the genial employer, as his hands clustered round him at the breakfast hour, "this is the election, and I hope you are all going to vote. Now, I'm not going to tell you my favorite candidate is. Every one of you is to be entirely free to vote as he thinks best. But do you see that big barrel of beer over in the corner? Well, that barrel won't be opened unless X— gets in."
